

Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution PRESENTS

Fukushima AND THE OCEAN

Thursday, May 9, 2013 • 6:30 – 9:30 p.m.

Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution
Redfield Auditorium, 45 Water St., Woods Hole, MA

PRESENTATIONS 6:30 - 8:00

The Fukushima Disaster: An Overview

Mitsuo Uematsu, University of Tokyo

Radioisotopes in the Ocean

Ken Buesseler, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution

Radioisotopes in Marine Life

Jota Kanda, Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology

Seafood Safety and Public Policy

Hiroyuki Matsuda, Yokohama National University

Impacts of Radioactivity on Human Health

James Seward, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory

The Role of the Media in Disasters

Dennis Normile, Science magazine

Tsunamis and Nuclear Power in the U.S.

Jian Lin, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution

PANEL DISCUSSION 8:00 - 9:30

Moderated by Heather Goldstone, host of Living Lab, WCAI,
Cape & Islands NPR

Sponsors

Elisabeth W. and Henry A. Morss, Jr.
Colloquia Endowed Fund
Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership
Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation
Center for Risk Management and Safety Sciences
Oceanographic Observation Center
Center for International Collaboration
Center for Marine & Environmental Radioactivity

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

For directions, parking, and more information, call 508.289.2252 or visit:

www.whoi.edu/fukushima